Trump's New Attorney General Nominee Wants to Enforce Catholic Law in America

By DAVID BARRON WWW.THETHIRDANGELSMESSAGE.COM

It is amazing how events are so rapidly unfolding before our eyes, it seems we could only write as fast as the information is happening, and as quickly as the Bible is fulfilling before our eyes. Month before last we talked about Evangelicals and how they are talking about Trump giving them their power back, taking the muzzle off. And all of this is just a fulfillment of the final prophecies in the book of Revelation chapter 13 leading us to the most awaited issue to come in this world. The Time of Trouble and the coming mark of the beast enforcement.

This month Donald Trump gave his nomination for attorney General after Jeff Sessions resigned. And it was only a few months ago that a religious task force was made to “combat secularists”. Yes that was the title of the article linked here. <https://www.vox.com/identities/2018/7/31/17631110/jeff-sessions-religious-liberty-task-force-memo-christian-nationalism>

And the article says it is all under the banner of “Nationalism”. If you Google the word “secularism” you'll find that it means “the principle of separation of the state from religious institutions.” And what is “Nationalism”? Its just Globalism on a smaller scale. Think about it. It leads to the same thing, giving up your “Individualism” and bowing to the “greater good” of the State. And just what is the “greater good” of the State? Sunday laws have proved to be for the “greater good”. Eliminating those who have stood in opposition of church and state has been for the “greater good.”

So former attorney General Jeff Sessions really made a religious task force to combat those who oppose secularism, which again is opposing the idea of a united Church and State. And this task force was created with the help of Catholic archbishop Joseph Kurtz all under the guise of “religious freedom”. Seems we've forgotten some of our history and need to remember a few things. Firstly:

“The pacific tone of Rome in the United States does not imply a change of heart. She is tolerant where she is helpless. Says Bishop O'Connor: 'Religious liberty is merely endured until the opposite can be carried into effect without peril to the Catholic world.' . . . The archbishop of St. Louis once said: 'Heresy and unbelief are crimes; and in Christian countries, as in Italy and Spain, for instance, where all the people are Catholics, and where the Catholic religion is an essential part of the law of the land, they are punished as other crimes.' . . . (Great Controversy Page 565)

We need to understand history because it is merely repeating itself, when the Roman Republic fell, a tyrannical police state ensued, and the law of the church became the law of the land. Entire nations were completely uprooted and destroyed around the time of the Code of Justinian onward and the Papacy dominated the State power until 1798 when France ended that horrific reign after more than 50 million were killed. And according to the Roman Church this would have all been done for the “greater good.”

Well, what we are currently watching is the fall of the constitutional republic of the United States, and similar to the fall of the Republic of Rome the church leaders of today are standing in the wings awaiting their power to rule over, guide and counsel the Kings or President of the United States.

William Barr was nominated this month to be the Attorney General, that is the principal legal officer who represents a country or a state in legal proceedings and gives legal advice to the government. Or the head of the US Department of Justice.

And just what is justice to William Barr? Well, he is a Catholic who wants God's law to be enforced in America. Furthermore, in order to do that those who are extremist secularists must be stopped.

We will quote from an article entitled "Theocracy alert: Trump's Attorney General Pick William Barr is a Catholic conservative who rejects the separation of church and state, calls secularists 'fanatics,' and blames secularism for 'moral decline.'" <http://www.ncregister.com/daily-news/president-trump-nominates-william-barr-as-attorney-general>

Remember that secularism is referring to those who believe in the separation of church and state. In the article we read concerning Barr "Addressing a conference of governors on juvenile crime in Milwaukee on April 1, 1992, Barr blasted public schools for no longer providing moral instruction. He asserted that public schools had undergone a "moral lobotomy" and blamed it on "extremist notions of separation of church and state."

So who is to blame for all the problems in America. Those who believe that the Church shouldn't control the State. Those who believe that the Papacy murdering 50 million during the dark ages was wrong. Those who believe that the advisors of Darius making a religious law to put Daniel in the lions den were wrong. Those who believe Nebuchadnezzar enforcing a religious law to bow to an image was wrong. Those who understand the woman in Revelation riding the beast is a symbol of the Church controlling the State and that it is wrong.

And with a new religious liberty task force targeting those people, the next steps can only be persecution using the law of the land.

Recently with Matt Whitaker as acting attorney general under this Trump administration is refusing to release documents concerning the religious liberty task force.

<https://www.metroweekly.com/2018/12/trump-administration-refuses-to-release-documents-about-religious-liberty-task-force/>

So what can we expect with this religious task force? I'll come to that. The article on Barr continues further. We read: "About six months later, Barr struck again. During an Oct. 6, 1992, speech in Washington, D.C., to the Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights, a traditionalist Catholic group, Barr called for the imposition of "God's law" in America.

"To the extent that a society's moral culture is based on God's law, it will guide men toward the best possible life," Barr said. He also attacked "modern secularists" for supposedly ushering in cultural decline, remarking, "The secularists of today are clearly fanatics."

We give to God what is God's and Caesar what is Caesar's. The term Caesar means civil. Isn't that just what was predicted over 120 years ago by the author of the Great Controversy.

"The Sunday movement is now making its way in darkness. The leaders are concealing the true issue, and many who unite in the movement do not themselves see whither the under-current is tending." 5T 452

So is it any wonder that they are refusing to release documents concerning the so-called "religious liberty task force." Which is headed by Catholics. Again, let's remind ourselves of history.

"Protestants have tampered with and patronized popery; they have made compromises and concessions which papists themselves are surprised to see and fail to understand. Men are closing their eyes to the real character of Romanism and the dangers to be apprehended from her supremacy. The people need to be aroused to resist the advances of this most dangerous foe to civil and religious liberty." (Great Controversy 566)

But instead of recognizing this foe to religious liberty, they embrace it, and then even ask this foe to help develop a religious liberty task force. Its like asking the wolf to guard the henhouse. And then call this religious task force to combat those who believe in a separation of church and state. If we weren't being so dumbed down by all the processed foods, vaccinations, chemicals and constant overwork we'd be saying "that's the dumbest thing I ever heard." But yet its really happening.

The article concerning William Barr further states: "He also attacked the Supreme Court's ruling in Lee v. Weisman, a 1992 ruling that upheld the high court's decisions from 1962 and '63 barring public schools from compelling children to take part in prayer and worship."

In other words he believes children should be forced to pray and worship in schools? And he's Catholic. Does his law say what day we should worship on? Does it matter?

Its not wrong for government to enforce civil law which protects people and their property from people who are uncivil. But when you try to enforce God's law such as murder and adultery, you have to remember that looking on another woman is a violation of the law. And furthermore, hatred is a violation of the law of murder. So what now? We stone them, or burn them?

Or we can actually really enforce God's law, and on the way to the courthouse, if the person repents of murdering 20 people, we can immediately pardon them and let them free. Right? No, we can't enforce God's moral law. We would have to be able to read, know and understand the intents of the heart. And that is given to God only. Civil government can only protect from the uncivil.

So therefore to force another to pray, or worship by law, is something that ended in casting Daniel into the lions den. It resulted in casting 3 boys into a furnace of fire. It ended up having Elijah and the 7000 become outlaws in the land. It had the apostles confess that "We must obey God rather than men." And this Spirit is the same Spirit that crucified Jesus Christ.

"To protect liberty of conscience is the duty of the state, and this is the limit of its authority in matters of religion. Every secular government that attempts to regulate or enforce religious observances by civil authority is sacrificing the very principle for which the evangelical Christian so nobly struggled." (Great Controversy Page 201)

Bible history explains these things, and the Great controversy only states it plainly, and so this gets us straight to the point. This next quote is taken from the final warning. And this is some of what is going on.

"Heretofore those who presented the truths of the third angel's message have often been regarded as mere alarmists. Their predictions that religious intolerance would gain control in the United States, that church and state would unite to persecute those who keep the commandments of God, have been pronounced groundless and absurd. It has been confidently declared that this land could never become other than what it has been--the defender of religious freedom. But as the question of enforcing Sunday observance is widely agitated, the event so long doubted and disbelieved is seen to be approaching, and the third message will produce an effect which it could not have had before. {Great Controversy 605} entitled "Sunday Laws in the Pipeline". It documents some of what I've shared here plus much more. I have finished part 3 of this series and am currently working on part 4 which may be done by the time this newsletter reaches you. They are available on my Youtube channel and thankfully have been reaching thousands of people.

But I want to go much further than that. I see that the time is short, and as I put these together I realized that most people are not ready, nor do they understand what is coming, and that we need to set forth these truths before them. Not only that but in a very clear light.

The events happening over the last few years are things that we have been awaiting for many years. We need to get these messages up remembering some things. Firstly, Righteousness comes by faith, and of course we need conversion, but how does faith come? Faith comes by hearing the word of God. (Rom 10:17) But we need to exercise that faith.

We need to understand what Jesus said
"And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe." (John 14:29) Telling us things before they come to pass is called prophecy. And prophecy is given to us so that we might believe. Prophecy gives us faith, and faith produces righteousness.

1Co 14:24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

As we see these things coming to pass, does it not give us faith in God's word. Can we trust him? But furthermore, Peter said we are to have a "sure word of prophecy" which is as "a light that shineth in a dark place." (2 Pet 1:19)

As we see these things coming to pass, may our faith increase, and may we truly accept the righteousness of Christ into our hearts reflecting the image of him, but yet understanding and sharing with others that the current events that are taking place line up with the final warning in Bible Prophecy before Jesus returns in the clouds. MINISTRY UPDATE - JANUARY 2019

I am currently working on completing a series on the current agitation of the Sunday Law issue. I have a small set of videos, currently working on number 4 and want to make DVD's for mass distribution to the people setting the issue clearly before them. For those who would like to help in this work please let us know.

I also currently have part 3 of the Omega of Deadly Heresies series in the works and am hoping to complete that soon enough. I have several other project ideas in sight, but I can only do so much at a time. I am looking for someone who could help edit videos or to pay someone to help us. If anyone has some of these skills, and believes this is a work for them, let me know. We appreciate all the support we have received from everyone, it has helped already, and we are looking to do much more and your help is needed.

Our audience on YouTube has broadened, and I am receiving numerous emails daily. This is a lot of work as well keeping up with all of the messages I've been receiving.

So our goal at this point is to get a video editor and start to produce much more content, and to broadly cast the seed out and reach more people.

We also have a group in Africa we are currently helping to do a work, and for anyone who can help with distributing Bibles and literature or who would like to give to the cause please let us know.

There is much work to be done.

Mat 9:37-38 Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

New Videos - Sunday Laws in the Pipeline

BY DAVID BARRON

Currently I have put together 3 parts in this series and am hoping to have the 4th part done shortly in a series of videos documenting the nearness of the events so long doubted by many, yet so long waited for by some. These videos document the fact that all of this is really in the pipeline, and that the pipe is about to burst.

After putting these together I realized myself how near these things are, and am thinking of how quickly we need to get these messages to the people. I am very thankful that at the time of writing this part I has already had over 30,000 views and part 2 over 14,000. And part 3 is just about to be released. Part 4 is still in the pipeline.

After hearing Ted Wilson, the president of the General Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church say there was "no Sunday law in the pipeline" I realized that the people aren't getting the warning. And they aren't going to be prepared for the crisis that is about to come.

So many have thought that when Sunday Laws come they would give the loud cry. But many have failed to understand the issue and are waiting for a decree to go forth. Sunday laws are being made around the world right now. In Poland, Germany, France, Finland, but in the United States there are men waiting in the wings for the power of the State to fall into their hands so they can shut up the voices of the dissenters. And they don't need Sunday laws.

There are already laws in place such as the NDAA which was re-authorized by Donald Trump and the Patriot Act which can be used to detain citizens indefinitely without even charging them with a crime. Trump's new legal man William Barr who was nominated for Attorney General has said that he believes the measures used in the Patriot Act are too light and that the surveillance State should go much further.

As we talked about last month, Alabama made an unconstitutional law having the ten commandments displayed on public property such as schools and government buildings. The constitution says no law is to be made respecting a religion.

There are also numerous laws being made on hate speech which violate the first amendment, and the rights of the people are slowly eroding. However, the amazing thing about this all, is the people are begging for it.

So we've made these videos documenting the fact that the Sunday laws are moving in darkness, but it is extremely important to understand that we are to give a loud cry NOW. Not after the decree goes forth.

FINAL WARNING IS NOW

This is so important, please don't miss the following points I am about to make. There is a chapter in the Great Controversy called the Final warning. This chapter was entitled the Loud Cry in earlier versions of the Great Controversy. It's the cry mentioned in Revelation 18:1-4 to "come out of her my people" because she, that is the church, Babylon, the mother, being the Roman Catholic Church is guilty of fornication with the kings of the earth. Her daughters have followed in the same line.

But right after this chapter is called the Time of Trouble. And you'll notice that Jesus has left the sanctuary. This implies that he has taken off the priestly robe as mediator, and put on his kingly crown.

"Then Jesus ceases His intercession in the sanctuary above. He lifts His hands and with a loud voice says, "It is done;" and all the angelic host lay off their crowns as He makes the solemn announcement: "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still." Revelation 22:11. Every case has been decided for life or death. Christ has made the atonement for His people and blotted out their sins. The number of His subjects is made up; "the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven," is about to be given to the heirs of salvation, and Jesus is to reign as King of kings and Lord of lords." (Great Controversy 613)

This is where Michael "stands up". Stand up in the book of Daniel means to take the Kingdom. Jesus is crowned at this point "King of kings". Michael your prince, has accepted his kingship and he is on his way to get his people. Probation is closed on the world, all cases have been decided and there is no more mediator in the sanctuary above. But I want you to notice what happens next.

"I saw that the four angels would hold the four winds until Jesus' work was DONE in the sanctuary, and THEN will come the SEVEN LAST PLAGUES. These plagues enraged the wicked against the righteous; they thought that we had brought the judgments of God upon them, and that if they could rid the earth of us, the plagues would then be stayed. A DECREE went forth to SLAY THE SAINTS, which caused them to cry day and night for deliverance." (Early Writings 36-37)

A decree goes forth... Notice, Jesus leaves the sanctuary and probation is closed, then the plagues fall, then the wicked are enraged. And finally, a decree goes forth.

Now let me explain what will happen at this time to the deceived. They will be saying "It's time to give the loud cry. Its time to go forth with the FINAL WARNING." BUT its TOO LATE. Jesus has left the sanctuary.

"When Jesus LEAVES THE MOST HOLY, His restraining Spirit is withdrawn from rulers and people. They are left to the control of evil angels. THEN such LAWS will be made by the counsel and direction of Satan, that unless time should be very short, NO FLESH COULD BE SAVED." (Testimonies Vol. One, p204)

So what next? This is a quote from Matthew 24:21 which reads:
Matthew 24:21, 22 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

In other words it is "the time of trouble such as never was" (Dan 12:1) And "No flesh could be saved" because Jesus has left the sanctuary. This is when "SUCH LAWS WILL BE MADE". And this is when some believe they are going to give the LOUD CRY. TOO LATE will be the cry of those who understand.

In the time of the loud cry however, we will notice the following:
"As the movement for Sunday enforcement becomes more bold and decided, the law will be invoked against commandment keepers. They will be threatened with fines and imprisonment, and some will be offered positions of influence, and other rewards and advantages, as inducements to renounce their faith." (Great Controversy 607)

There are threats going on, anyone heard of what's happening in Russia right now. Jehovah's witnesses were completely shut down from sharing or even assembling, and the obvious target will be those who are preaching this final warning. China has had Seventh-day Adventist books banned, and subscribers to newsletters arrested just recently. The law has been invoked against commandment keepers, they are being threatened with fines and imprisonment, its happening, but what else is happening at this time?

"Heretofore those who presented the truths of the third angel's message have often been regarded as mere alarmists. Their predictions that religious intolerance would gain control in the United States, that church and state would unite to persecute those who keep the commandments of God, have been pronounced groundless and absurd. It has been confidently declared that this land could never become other than what it has been--the defender of religious freedom. But as the question of enforcing Sunday observance is widely agitated, the event so long doubted and disbelieved is seen to be approaching, and the third message will produce an effect which it could not have had before. (Great Controversy 605)

"Persecution in its varied forms is the development of a principle which will exist as long as Satan exists and Christianity has vital power. No man can serve God without enlisting against himself the opposition of the hosts of darkness." (Great Controversy 610)

Just something to think about. Persecution in "varied forms" is happening already, and its not necessarily just a Sunday law. Some are coming, some are here, and some are going to get more severe, but there are varied forms by which the enemy will work to persecute. And he can use different laws to imprison, threaten, etc.

Will we bow to the State, or will we bow to God will be the question. And will we understand that the Loud cry needs to go forth NOW. Because of the alarm I am currently working on a DVD which will have all of the videos on it. If you have other ways of distributing the message or would like to help in this endeavor please let me know. I believe we must work quickly.

"There are many who have never had an opportunity to hear the special truths for this time. The obligation of the fourth commandment has never been set before them in its true light. He who reads every heart and tries every motive will leave none who desire a knowledge of the truth, to be deceived as to the issues of the controversy. The decree is not to be urged upon the people blindly. Everyone is to have sufficient light to make his decision intelligently." (Great Controversy 605)

Blessings, DB

This quote has so much to say of what is happening RIGHT NOW. This when the final warning is going forth, there is the "question of enforcing Sunday observance" being "widely agitated". Its becoming obvious now. And so many are seeing it. We need to get this warning to the people NOW while its being AGITATED. Not after the decree goes forth.
